

Scholarship fund keeps memories alive

FEBRUARY

Black History MONTH

BY CHRIS BROOKE
editor@hclocal.com

The Merriweather and King Street schools helped shape Eminence’s black community in the past, and organizers of a non-profit foundation want to carry that legacy into the future through a scholarship fund and related activities, according to one board member.

“Merriweather King Street School Fund basically preserves the history of those two black schools to remember from whence we came and to facilitate activities, events that would continue to fund the scholarships and promote other activities like tutoring programs and after school programs,” explained Ron Wright, who serves on the foundation’s board.

The schools are a touchstone for every black family that lived in Eminence under segregation — from about 1920s for Merriweather, built by the community for $3,000 including a $500 donation from the Rosenwald Rural Program Fund, and later the students moved into the new brick structure on King Street from 1950 until all schools were integrated. Wright attended King Street, which still stands.

“The significance is that peoples’ grandparents, parents, everybody in Eminence that was black at the time went to one of those schools,” Wright said.

Black families with the name Lindsey, Hayden, Fisher, Armstrong, Mason, Henderson, Hill, Martin, Bailey and more, have ties to the two schools.

As a result, the schools mean a great deal to local history, Wright said. The schools produced, just to name a few, scholars and athletes like Jerry Green, at one time the fastest man in the state who went on to University of Kentucky; Bill Armstrong, who had a record as a full back for the Eminence football team; Eric Bachelor, who was a super basketball player; John Roberts, the first black quarterback to play for Eminence High, followed by his cousin,

Moran bags best spot on Cabela's spring catalog

editor@hclocal.com

Being hired by Cabela's, the outdoor recreation retail chain, has turned into a model opportunity for its Louisville location's firearms counter lead outfitter from Pleasureville.

The image of CanDance Moran aiming a long gun into the deep blue sky has appeared in tens of thousands of mailboxes on the cover of Cabela's spring shooting- and National Rifle Association-themed catalog.

A hunter and fisher from as far back as age 6, Moran joined the Cabela's team on Feb. 26, 2013, when she helped get the Old Brownsboro Crossing store location ready to open.

Moran unabashedly loves her career, because it allows her to pursue her outdoor interests even during work hours, as well as get hands-on experience with equipment offerings. After work, she enjoys fishing with a bow

Along with Moran, Madison McGuigan of Campbellsburg also participated in the photo shoot in Bowling Green for Cabela's last year.

Grant gets more jail time

BY MELISSA BLANKENSHIP
publisher@hclocal.com

Brandon Grant came to court Thursday expecting to be sentenced and released, but instead will have to serve an additional 40 days.

Grant, who pleaded guilty to two counts of torture of a dog or cat with serious physical injury or death in December, had been released from jail pending his sentencing hearing. When he missed a required visit with his probation officer on Dec. 23, a bench warrant was issued for his arrest. He was taken into custody and had been in jail since Jan. 23 when he appeared in front of Henry County Circuit Court Judge Karen Conrad last week.

Assistant Commonwealth Attorney Josh Clubb informed the judge that while released Grant had been in contact with animals, a violation of the terms of his plea agreement

Spotlight shines on Hartford's good works

BY CHRIS BROOKE
editor@hclocal.com

When Eminence Elementary Principal Mike Doran asked the 800 students to stand if they’ve been affected by the work of Debbie Hartford, almost every youth gathered in the gym Thursday for a special assembly rose to their feet.

Most people probably know that Hartford gets involved as the director of Family Resources and Youth Services, Doran said. Maybe they can think of eight or nine ways she works to improve Eminence, but Doran could think of more than 21 tasks that Hartford takes on.

The number of students who acknowledged receiving benefits from Hartford’s work kept going up as Doran went down the list of all the projects she has quietly been involved in — arranging for the back to school bash; helping with the Judy Lea benefit; putting on the father-daughter dance; working on the Christmas assistance program, canned food drives, Red Ribbon Week; providing transportation to and from the sheriff’s summer camp; providing all kinds of assistance to families and school supplies to students; helping with Hearts of Grace so families can have access to needed school clothes; working on the Reality Store and more.

“Debbie is a tireless worker, who always places our students first,” Doran told the Henry County Local.

When CanDance Moran took the job with Cabela's two years ago, she knew that she'd love her work-related activities, but never thought she would end up on a catalog cover.

down to the Kentucky River a lot on the boat to bow fish," she said. "I'm just getting out there having fun, more or less. It's all about having friends and family out there with you doing it."

Love of the outdoors for Moran began with her family.

"My mom, dad, all enjoy the outdoors," she said. "That's who taught me how to bait my first hook and call a turkey. That was a way of life, I guess, for our family. My first deer was a nine point — it was the first year with me and my dad, so that was memorable for me."

Now, she enjoys speeding up the process of fishing with her bow. "I didn't have the patience to wait for them anymore, so I actually go after them and stick them."

Through her position with KYSA, Moran has posed for bow fishing photographs, and she works to get more women and children participating in outdoor activities.

So, Moran already had some modeling experience when Cabela's headquarters sent a message to its stores looking for pictures of outfitters, as the company calls their employees, engaged in their sport.

Her fellow employees selected Moran, as well as her best friend, Madison McGuigan of Campbellsburg, to pose for photos that could be used by the retail chain.

"So, we went down to Bowling Green and spent the whole day with the corporate team from Sydney, Neb.," Moran said. "They took us out to this little area out there and they just took all day long. It was funny, because we're really small town girls and walking into something like this. It was like 'How do we act?' 'What do we say?' 'What do we do?'"

As the first outfitters among their peers to go on a photo shoot, Moran and McGuigan felt pretty excited, but they had no idea that landing the cover was even in play.

"They told us when they were looking at the pictures, it's a possibility that you could be on the Internet or you could be in fliers," Moran recalled. "No one ever said it could possibly go for a cover. So when I got the email ... I was in tears at the time, because I never thought that was possible. We knew we were just promoting the product, because we were wearing from head to toe Cabela's gear."

Moran learned this back in December, but couldn't tell anyone until the catalog came out Feb. 2.

The catalog and the Internet means people all over the world are seeing Moran's cover.

"That is the weirdest," Moran said about the catalog. "I still can't event imagine to this day, I could be in someone's living room on the coffee table."

"So, it's kind of interesting that, maybe for just a day, I get to be this glammed up outdoors woman," she added. "It's a dream for someone like me."

Moran plans to participate in other photo shoots and to stay with Cabela's, hopefully working her way up to department manager, general manager or higher.

"I don't know what the good Lord has in store for me or Cabela's, but I can only go up from here," she said. "I'm going to keep working as hard as I can to move up in Cabela's and also keep that close tie so I can, hopefully, model for them and promote the business, because I truly am a believer in what they sell. I couldn't imagine working for another company."

Pendleton man pleads guilty to selling methadone to informant

publisher@hcllocal.com

Steve Edward McFarland, who was scheduled for a jury trial in September to answer to several counts of trafficking in a controlled substance, pleaded guilty to all counts in Henry County Circuit Court Thursday.

McFarland, who was 72 at the time of his arrest in the summer of 2012, sold methadone, a schedule II narcotic, to a confidential informant three times according to his indictment.

The informant told police McFarland traveled to Cincinnati, where he purchased numerous methadone pills.

State police conducted three controlled buys resulting in approximately 60 doses of methadone in a 30-day period.

A subsequent search of McFarland's Pendleton home produced several firearms, one of which was missing the serial number, $3,000 in cash, 40 Suboxone tablets, 65 prescription methadone tablets, 11 Suboxone patches in an unmarked pill bottle, drug paraphernalia and nine Lowe's credit cards with pin numbers.

He was charged with four counts of first degree trafficking in a controlled substance for the methadone, one count of second degree trafficking in a controlled substance for Buprenorphine and one count possession of a defaced firearm.

Commonwealth

Attorney Courtney Baxter negotiated with Steve Edward McFarland's attorney, Ken McCardwell, throughout the afternoon Thursday before reaching a plea agreement.

McFarland pleaded guilty to all six charges and will be sentenced on April 9 at 1 p.m. The recommended sentence is five years of conditional probation and the completion of payment on a $10,000 bond, of which McFarland still owes $2,000. There will also be restitution to pay, as well as fees for monitoring. Among other conditions of his agreement will be to have no visitors at his home except for his ex-wife, his children and their spouses and his grandchildren.

Staff and students at Eminence Independent Schools surprised Debbie Hartford, director of youth and family services, with an assembly in her honor for all the good work she does behind the scenes.

“She goes the extra distance to ensure that the basic needs of our families are met — a wonderful asset to our community.”

School staff made sure that Hartford would arrive at the assembly last. She didn’t know the assembly was to shine the spotlight on her good work, until she was led into the center of the gym.

Seated in a chair there, Hartford heard from Eminence Mayor Drane Stephens that Feb. 12 had been declared Debbie Hartford Day in her honor.

High school Principal Shannon Treece noted Hartford always puts the needs of others before her own.

“There are people who make a difference in this world and push forward quietly through any barrier that emerges to do what is right for children,” Treece said. “Debbie Hartford is that person. She gives her heart, time and mind to anyone needing it.”

Treece recalled messaging Hartford with issues well after bedtime. While many people would wait to respond until the next day, that’s not Hartford’s way.

“It is a pleasure and honor to work with her and know that our students have her as an advocate,” Treece said. “Eminence is better because of Debbie Hartford.”

Remembering a conversation with Hartford about school children not having enough winter coats, Pastor Michael Duncan raised the idea of collecting coats during a sermon about being involved in the community. He never dreamed the idea would bring in dozens of coats and evolve into such a significant project.

“I have known Debbie Hartford almost all her life, since she was nine years old,” Duncan said. “Never once during those years have I doubted that her life would matter and that she would make a difference in the lives of others. I just didn’t know it would be in our community and school. Debbie brings enthusiasm, integrity, and empathy to her work. The children and families connected to the Eminence Schools are fortunate to have Debbie Hartford serving them. She makes life better for all the folks she serves.”

Teacher Janet Golden described herself as a very proud older sister. She knew, though, that Hartford would not like receiving this recognition, but she deserved it.

“Debbie Hartford gives by living in the background,” Golden said. “She doesn’t like nor does she want to be in the spotlight. She is a ‘behind the scenes’ kind of girl. Today, we are asking her to step out of her comfort zone to allow us the opportunity to show her how very much she is needed and how grateful we are to her for her support.”

Golden feels amazed at what Hartford has been able to do for the community. “Debbie Hartford accomplishes much because it is never about her. Her dedication to the families of Eminence is unmatched. I do not know what our community or our school would do without her.”

Circuit court deals with continuing cases

Updates on other pending Henry County Circuit Court cases:

- Leo F. Zoeller

Conrad set a suppression hearing for May 15 in Oldham County at 2 p.m. in the case of Leo F. Zoeller, who is charged with three counts of incest with a victim under 12 years of age or serious physical injury; rape, first degree with a victim under 12 years of age; two counts of sodomy, first degree, a victim under 12 years of age; and two counts of sexual abuse, first degree with victim under 12 years of age;

Zoeller’s attorney Rob Riley is arguing that statements made by a witness during a questioning should be suppressed. The Commonwealth has extended a plea offer to Zoeller and he is considering it, according to Riley.

“We are considering it, but I can’t advise him until we know whether or not those statements will be admissible,” Riley said on behalf of his client. “It will be dependent upon what happens at the suppression hearing.”

- Curtis Sanford

Curtis Sanford, who faces charges of burglary, second degree and attempted rape, first degree, has been released after posting a $10,000 full cash bond.

“In light of the fact that the bond was paid in his name, I am required to see if he can pay an attorney, instead of working with a public defender,” Conrad said.

Sanford told the judge he planned to hire a private attorney and Conrad released the public defender from his case. She also made clear to him the conditions of his release, which include staying out of Henry County except for court and attorney appointments.

Sanford will be back in court May 14.

- Charles Thomas Hagan

Although Charles Thomas Hagan has requested a public defender to represent him in court as he faces four counts of first degree sexual abuse, the court must first determine his financial state.

Hagan owns two homes, one is his residence and another is a rental home. Hagan claims the rental property merely pays the mortgage for his residence and that he and his family live paycheck to paycheck. He also owns three vehicles, which Hagan said were “basically junk.”

Conrad asked Hagan to provide additional information regarding his income before she can determine whether or

I survived ‘snow-magedon’ 2015

Snow. Snow. Snow.
Snow. Snow. Snow.
Snow. Snow. Snow.
Snow. Snow. Snow.

Sorry! Just reflecting my experience about what happens when people from the temperate zone of the United States (in the band that receives four separate and distinct seasons between the Arctic deep freeze in the North and the sweaty tropics of the Southeast and the sweaty arid desert of Southwest) receive inclement winter weather.

In my realm of experience, it doesn’t matter if the region features flat farmland like in Evansville or deer path, steep and curvy roads in the Blue Ridge Mountains, everything shuts down and nothing else occurs any time accumulations top two inches of the crystalline terror.

So, we’ve been blessed with an embarrassment of riches with our first whiteout of winter 2014-2015 — probably about four times what we need to trigger a fluffy, feathery frozen Apocalypse.

Looks like Punxsutawney Phil, the world’s most famous forecasting rodent, made a good call when he saw his shadow on Gobbler’s Knob in Pennsylvania, despite a shroud of freezing rain and drizzle.

Still, the heat’s on, the power continues to surge along intact utility lines and my computer’s operational, so it could be worse.

I’ve got time before going to shovel again and my hands continue to be unencumbered by frostbite, meaning I’m able to type out one of my wonderful biweekly meditations on anything that might occur to me. Inspiration could strike from literally anywhere.

- * Looks out window.
- * Cracks knuckles.
- * Stares out into space.
- * Checks clock.

I admit to being a bit preoccupied by the state of the weather. It’s apparently not just for television meteorologists, anymore.

Makes me wonder how it came to be that a prognosticating groundhog would guesstimate the length of time before dreary cold gave way to the greenery of spring?

According to folk tradition, the Germans who settled America in the 1700s brought with them the observance of Candlemas Day, celebrated as the midpoint between winter solstice and spring equinox, according to stormfax.com.

“Superstition held that if the weather was fair, the second half of winter would be stormy and cold,” the website said. “According to the old English saying, ‘If Candlemas be fair and bright, winter has another flight. If Candlemas brings clouds and rain, winter will not come again.”

The Germans had a slight variation on the theme: “For as the sun shines on Candlemas Day, so far will the snow swirl until May. For as the snow blows on Candlemas Day, so far will the sun shine before May.”

The first reference to Groundhog Day goes back to Feb. 4, 1841, from Morgantown, Pa., where a storekeeper recounted in his diary the frontiersmen watched as the animal would peep out of his quarters to find whether he should emerge from his slumber or return to the burrow to nap for another six weeks.

“If the sun made an appearance on Candlemas Day, an animal would cast a shadow, thus predicting six more weeks of winter,” the website said. “Germans watched a badger for the shadow. In Pennsylvania, the groundhog, upon waking from mid-winter hibernation, was selected as the replacement.”

Stormfax acknowledges Phil doesn’t provide too much competition for the National Weather Service.

“The groundhog’s seasonal forecasting accuracy is somewhat low,” the website said. “Phil’s winter prognostications have been correct only 39 percent of the time.”

While the little ground dweller’s ability to see the future is questionable, I have 100 percent confidence in my read on the next hours and days: more shoveling, much napping and taking my daily commute at a relative crawl.

It’s time to stop double-taxing your Social Security benefits

On January 28, 2015, I introduced the Senior Citizens Tax Elimination Act (H.R. 589). This bill would assist our struggling middle class by eliminating an unnecessary and unjust double-tax on seniors.

Social Security itself is financed by tax dollars, so forcing elderly and senior Americans to list these benefits as taxable income on their tax returns is absurd. This sneaky technique allows Congress to obtain more revenue for the federal government by taxing benefits owed to citizens who have paid into Social Security most of their lives. When Social Security benefits are taxed, they are, of course, reduced for the person who receives the benefit.

As the Congressional Research Service reports, “Until 1984, Social Security benefits were exempt from the federal income tax. The exclusion was based on rulings made in 1938 and 1941 by the Department of the Treasury, Bureau of Internal Revenue (the predecessor of the Internal Revenue Service). The 1941 Bureau ruling . . . viewed benefits as being for general welfare and reasoned that subjecting the payments to income taxation would be contrary to the purposes of Social Security.”

Thomas*massie*

In other words, the 1941 equivalent of the IRS viewed the taxation of Social Security benefits as being unjust and contrary to the purpose for which Social Security was created!

For over 40 years, then, Social Security benefits remained untouched by tax-happy congressmen. What made Congress change its mind? Well, perhaps the opportunity to obtain more revenue for the federal government was simply too enticing for most congressmen, who didn’t see anything wrong with taxing Social Security benefits to get more money for the government’s coffers.

When Congress first implemented the tax in 1984, it set politically palatable levels so as not to affect middle class retirees. However, because the thresholds for taxing Social Security have not been adjusted for inflation, more and more retirees are now subject to the tax. What was considered a generous retirement income in 1984 is no longer comfortable, so eliminating this tax will benefit increasingly large numbers of Americans.

As the number of retirees forced to pay this tax increases, public awareness of the tax on Social Security benefits will likewise increase. If congressmen are inundated with complaints from their constituents regarding this unfair and unjust tax, surely Congress could find the will to reduce or eliminate it altogether.

As my colleague and fellow co-sponsor Ron DeSantis says, “Americans pay taxes their entire working lives to support Social Security, so there is no reason why these earned benefits should be taxed once again when they receive them. Congressman Massie’s legislation promotes transparency by blowing the whistle on the federal government for double-taxation.”

H.R. 589 was originally introduced by Congressman Ron Paul in 2003. Original co-sponsors of the version I introduced last month include Rep. Jim Bridenstine of Oklahoma, Rep. Rod Blum of Iowa, Rep. Ron DeSantis of Florida, Rep. Trent Franks of Arizona, Rep. Louie Gohmert of Texas, Rep. David Jolly of Florida, and Rep. Alexander Mooney of West Virginia.

The Association of Mature American Citizens (AMAC) supports H.R. 589, and says that the bill “rightly eliminates the unfair income tax on Social Security benefits and ensures that older Americans, who have paid into Social Security throughout their careers, are not excessively taxed by the federal government. Given that mature Americans and seniors have already paid tax on their Social Security contributions via the payroll tax, it is irresponsible for the government to double-tax the benefit in order to generate more revenue. The ‘Senior Citizens Tax Elimination Act’ will not only enable beneficiaries to retain more money for retirement, but it will restore integrity to the Social Security program.”

It is time for Congress to end this tax.

The end of Harvest Showcase?

For 15 years a small but dedicated group of Henry County citizens brought to life Kentucky’s largest all local agricultural festival right here in your own backyard. The Henry County Harvest Showcase, held yearly on the last Saturday in July at the fairgrounds in New Castle is currently being planned for the 16th year. But, here’s the truth: it is not going to happen without your help.

If you have ever attended a Harvest Showcase, or are involved in any agricultural, arts or non-profit endeavor, or if you are simply interested in participating in Henry County’s overarching vision of preserving its agricultural history and growing its agricultural assets, we need you to volunteer your energy and expertise to the planning of this event.

The fulfillment and success of the sixteenth annual Henry County Harvest Showcase will depend on the response of citizens to this request. Please call (502) 532-0230 for more information and to let us know you are willing and ready to help this valuable event move forward and become the biggest and best yet.

*Many thanks,
The Henry County
Harvest Showcase Committee*

An article on Charles Simpson’s involvement in mapping the moon for the Apollo 11 mission in the Feb. 11 edition, used an incorrect nickname for Simpson. He was known as Sonny, not Jimmy. Also, a historic detail was incorrect — Astronaut Michael Collins remained in orbit while his colleagues touched down on the moon. The Henry County Local regrets the errors.

Bedford man arrested in drug bust

On Feb. 13, Kentucky State Police Post 5 received an anonymous tip in reference to possible drug activity at 76 Kenlee Drive, according to a news release from KSP. Upon arrival, troopers made contact with the homeowner, James Singleton, 53. During the subsequent search of the residence, $15,275 in cash, approximately 2.5 pounds of marijuana, 528 pseudoephedrine tablets, items used in the cultivation of marijuana, illegal drug paraphernalia and other narcotics were located.

Singleton was arrested for possession of a firearm and handgun by a convicted felon, trafficking in marijuana over 8 ounces 1st offense, possession of a controlled substance 3rd degree, possession of marijuana, possession of paraphernalia and unlawful possession of a meth precursor, according to KSP.

Singleton was lodged in the Carroll County Detention Center.

Trooper Donald McCormick is leading the ongoing investigation. Trooper McCormick was assisted by Troopers Chad Johnson, Leland Ferris, Michael Gonterman, James Phelps, Tyler Hunter, Ryan Gosser, K-9 Grizz, and Detective Josh Noble.

Larry, as the QB; Don Hill and Jimmy Clark were two boxers who went to Merriweather; Joyce Winburn, who won one of the highest awards that an educator can get in Kentucky; and many more.

"These are special people because they knew how hard they had to work in order to be successful," Wright said. "They had to work a little harder to become what they are."

Stemming from a desire to preserve that history, the board of directors founded the Merriweather King Street School Fund, Inc. for the purposes of educational outreach. The founders also saw it as a way to recognize former teachers and students.

Since its formation, the charity has presented scholarships to Trey Lindsey for $1,000 and to Dominique Daishon Moore and Mesha Shanea Cooper for $500 each.

The first reunion banquet held last February honored teacher Lamont Jones at a function where 100 people were expected to attend, but the final tally reached 250.

About $3,000 in donations came in at that first function.

Wright wants to keep that enthusiasm going by reaching out to more volunteers and more supporters who are willing to serve on the board and arrange for fundraising activities to support scholarships.

"We're just trying to keep those memories alive under Merriweather

King Street," Wright said. "We encourage large corporations, companies, individuals and organizations to donate, so we can keep this alive."

Foundation organizers plan to hold a banquet to see if school alumni want to participate in serving on the board and seek volunteers to hold fundraisers, take care of record keeping and other paperwork, update the website and more.

Those interested in making a tax-deductible donation can send it to the foundation at P.O. Box 51, Eminence, Ky., 40019.

Those interested in volunteering or serving on the board may contact Joyce Mason Winburn at (502) 633-3070.

Wright sees supporting Merriweather King Street as a way to give back to the community that supported each other.

"Things were tough back then," he said. "Folks survived those times. I really appreciate those times, because it made us appreciate what we have. I don't want to forget about where I came from. I love Eminence, I love Henry County, and I always want to be able to contribute, and hopefully, inspire others to do the same."

release. That led to an off-hand remark from Grant that didn't necessarily help his case.

"I was told he was in Trimble County at a location with animals when they picked him up," Clubb said. "That he was in a home with four dogs. He is under a bond condition not to be around animals."

"It said I couldn't possess animals, not that I can't visit someplace with them," Grant said as he stood before the judge.

His public defender, Melanie Foote Hollingsworth, notified the judge she had just advised him that if he was in a home with animals, it would be a violation and his probation could be in question, if not revoked.

She asked that her client be released from custody, but Clubb argued against it citing issues with failure to appear, failure to comply with the conditions of his release and failed drug tests.

"He's in violation of the terms of his bond.

He's going to do more time," Conrad said. "I'm not inclined to release him today, he's going to serve more time."

"I don't know what it's going to take for you to understand," Conrad added, addressing Grant directly as she applied an additional 60 days to his jail stay.

Conrad then heard from the victim in this case, Grant's former girlfriend with whom he owned the two dogs that he admitted to killing.

"He did kill three of my dogs and injured two more dogs," she said. "He's been in a home with animals and after what he's done to our dogs in our home, he should never be allowed to be around animals."

When the judge asked her how she knew about Grant's interaction with dogs during his release, the victim told her that she had heard from a friend that he had been at a certain individual's home in Trimble County and that there were four dogs at that home.

"That's hearsay," Conrad said. "I can't really accept it, but we can have a hearing on it. I don't think he's denied contact with dogs after he made the statement that he wasn't supposed to possess animals."

But Grant's public defender interjected that she had no notice of the allegation and that his statement would not have been made had she properly advised her client not to say anything as he stood before Conrad.

"There simply isn't enough information to know what this alleged contact would have been," Hollingsworth said.

Conrad offered to set a hearing date to resolve the issue, saying witnesses would have to be called in to verify the extent of his contact with the animals, but Grant told Hollingsworth that he didn't want to wait for a hearing, that he just wanted to get it over with and go home.

"It's not happening today," Hollingsworth told Grant.

Conrad sentenced Grant to three years for each of the two counts, with those sentences to run concurrently. After alternative sentencing, Grant must serve three years of probation.

During that time he must enter court-approved drug and alcohol treatment as well as anger management, pay a fee of $100 per month, report to his probation officer and obey all rules of his probation. He can have no contact with the victim, have no new offenses and no missed, positive or diluted drug screens.

"Just to be clear, he is not to have any contact with any animal of any kind in any residence where he stays during his probation period," Conrad said. "And where you stay means even where you spend the night, means you will be inviting a charge of violation of probation. Visiting is one thing, spending the night or living there is another thing."

Conrad gave Grant credit for the time he had served since his latest arrest. Grant will spend another 39 days in jail before he is released and reports to probation and parole.

March 3-Second Wind Dreams Committee: We are planning to host Elvis at Providence New Castle at 2 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 27 and we are hoping to serve Kentucky Fried Chicken and have a Colonel Sanders impersonator visit with the residents during their lunch on Friday, March 27. If you know of anyone who would like to make a donation towards this special lunch dream let us know. This is a fun committee and we meet at 1:30 p.m. on the first Tuesday of the month—everyone is welcome to attend.

Informational Meeting: We have had suggestions for the development of two new Homemaker Clubs. One is a Homemaker Club for the “next generation” (a group for our younger homemakers) and the second idea is to have a Cooking Club. The cooking club would be a special interest club that would either invite a guest demonstrator to come in to do a program or have a volunteer club member demo something. The club could meet every month or every other month depending upon what the group decides. If you are interested in discussing these options give either County President Sandra Smith or myself a call or just stop by the Extension Office at 7 p.m. on March 10.

March 13: Soup Day! We stole this idea from Shelby County Extension. Plan to make a favorite pot of soup and bring to the Extension Office at 11:30 to share with other participants. We will provide crackers, beverage and dessert. Please call to let us know you are coming so we can plan the food and seating and also bring a copy of your recipe so that we can have copies made for everyone.

March 16 - May 4: Henry County Biggest Loser with a New Look: This will be the eighth year for the Henry County Biggest Loser and we are trying a spring session that will be run somewhat differently. There will be no entrance fees and we will be offering weekly educational classes in addition to weigh-ins. The program will be held at the Henry Christian Church. There will be eight weeks of classes that are designed to assist you in your goals of a reaching healthier weight. Several will be taught by Amanda Stoess, registered dietitian with North Central District Health Department. Weigh-ins start at 6 p.m. on Monday evenings; class sessions run from 6:30 to 7:30 p.m. and additional weigh-in time will be available after the class. There will also be a Monday morning weigh-in site at the Extension Office (from 9 to 11 a.m.) and after the initial week, a Sunday afternoon weigh-in at Henry Christian Church from 12:30 to 1:30 p.m. We are looking for community donations to provide gifts for the winners. Contact Mona Huff at 845-6849.

March 24: Leader Training on Cheese Basics at 1:30 p.m. at the Extension Office—There are many varieties of cheese, from cheddar to Swiss, each with its own unique characteristics. This lesson will reveal important information on varieties, storing and use of different cheeses. This lesson will include cheese sampling. Each club should send a representative but it is also open to the public.

April 2: Microprocessor Class: This video class will be held at the Henry County Extension Office and is for individuals participating in the Farmer's Market who want to sell home canned foods. Cost is $50 for the all-day workshop. Obtain the registration form on-line at <http://www.ca.uky.edu/agcomm/micro/>. This workshop is required to become a home-based microprocessor in Kentucky. It is the first step in a series that includes recipe approval (at a cost of $5 per recipe), verification of an approved water source, and annual certification by the Kentucky Food Safety Branch (with a certification fee of $50 per year). To qualify, farmers must live and farm in Kentucky. The final product must contain a fruit, vegetable, nut or herb grown by the farmer. Products may be sold from the farm, registered farmers markets or certified roadside stands. Once certified, home-based microprocessors may sell products such as canned tomatoes and tomato products, pickled fruits and vegetables, salsa, barbecue sauce, pepper or herb jellies, pressure-canned vegetables and low- or no-sugar jams and jellies.

April 18: Special Sewing Saturday for Second Wind Dreams: we are calling for volunteers to help stitch up some “Dining Scarves” for the residents of Providence New Castle. We made 65 of these several years ago and the residents and staff loved them and need them replaced. We will be starting at 9 a.m. at the Extension Office and end by 4 p.m. We need volunteers to sew, to cut, to press, and to turn the fabric – so even if you are not a seamstress there is a job for you. We will have a light pizza lunch provided. We also need fabric in at least one yard lengths so please look through those fabric stashes and drop it by the Extension Office. If you plan to sew you may want to bring your own machine although we have several available.

April 23: AARP Smart Driver Course 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Extension Office: Learn defensive driving techniques; proven safety strategies, new traffic laws and rules of the road. Plus, there are no tests to pass. You simply sign up and learn. Upon completion you could receive a multi-year discount on your car insurance (check with your agent to learn how much). You must pre-register as space is limited. Cost is $15 for AARP members and $20 for non-members. Send your check made out to AARP to us at the Extension Office (Box 246, New Castle, Ky. 40050). You must bring your AARP card that day if you are a member. We will also provide a light pizza lunch for participants. This class is taught by AARP volunteers Glenn and Teresa Woods of Pleasureville and they do an excellent job.

April 28: Leader Training on gluten free cooking at 1:30 p.m. at Extension Office: The gluten-free diet is emerging as one of the most popular trends on the market, but gluten seems to be widely misunderstood. This lesson will define gluten, describe a gluten-free diet, and discuss who should follow this diet. Each club should have a leader attend but it is also open to the public.

Tuesday Adult Sewing Classes: Master Clothing Volunteer Alice Newman has been teaching an ongoing Adult Sewing Class at the Extension Office from 7 to 9 p.m. on Monday evenings. Stop by if you are interested the program is open to everyone.

Educational programs of Kentucky Cooperative Extension serve all people regardless of race, color, age, sex, religion, disability, or national origin.

UK'S 150-YEAR ANNIVERSARY

CHRIS BROOKE/LOCAL

Henry County Judge-Executive John Logan Brent, flanked by Henry County Extension Service agents Cathy Toole and Maryellen Garrison, recently signed a proclamation recognizing the Sesquicentennial Anniversary of the founding of the University of Kentucky, the commonwealth's first land grant research university. UK, originally established as the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Kentucky University in 1865, stated its mission was to “teach such branches of learning as are related to agriculture and the mechanical arts, including military tactics, without excluding other scientific and classical studies, in order to promote the liberal and practical education of the industrial classes in several pursuits and professions of life.” With the university's 150-year anniversary Feb. 22, Brent proclaimed the week of Feb. 22 as UK Week in Henry County.

Kentucky producers invited to attend county informational farm bill meetings

The Kentucky Farm Service Agency (FSA), Kentucky Cooperative Extension Service, and Kentucky State University are hosting Farm Bill meetings throughout the Commonwealth.

The meetings are free and open to the public. To view a list of scheduled meetings visit www.fsa.usda.gov/KY/state events.

will learn about FSA Farm Bill programs including Conservation Compliance and the Noninsured Crop Disaster Assistance Program (NAP).

NAP provides financial assistance to producers of noninsurable crops to protect against natural disasters that result in lower yields or crop losses or prevented crop planting.

The informational meetings will cover the new buy-up provisions related to NAP.

An FSA representative will be in attendance to answer any questions on NAP and other Farm Bill related programs.

For more information about the meetings, please contact Marcinda Kester at 859-224-7637.

Search begins for new HC Chamber director

I want to give a warm welcome to KU/LG&E as new members of the Chamber. Our utility companies are wonderful supporters of our Chamber.

As most of you are aware, I will be retiring from the Executive Director's position on June 30. The search has begun for a new director. The position is listed in the classified section of this week's Local, and I hope you will consider applying.

This job is not the everyday business office job. While most of my time was spent in the office keeping records of dues in and dues due, a lot of this position is public relations. Liking people and being willing to go the extra mile is a definite part of being Chamber director.

Keeping the budget in balance through fundraisers became a big part of the work as well as getting to know the members, visiting various businesses, and answering questions on many topics over the phone. Each time information was given that helped people find what they needed or a Chamber recommendation of a business was shared meant the office was worth having in the county. Business recruitment is another difficult aspect and I was not the most successful person in that area.

PAT*wallace*
Henry County Chamber of Commerce

The mission of the Chamber is to promote pride and progress in Henry County through the cooperation and dedication of the citizens, businesses and industries of the entire county. I think the Chamber has come a long way in bringing awareness that Henry County is ready to do business.

Tourism has been a part of this job, but recently Jeff Thoke, Main Street Manager in New Castle, has taken on the responsibility of being regional representative for Henry County tourism. The Chamber will still be giving out brochures and doing promotions for this in cooperation with Mr. Thoke.

The person who takes this job will hopefully enjoy writing the monthly column for the Local, corresponding with the members, making networking dinner arrangements, and above all, enjoy meeting and conversing with both members and prospective members. It is an interesting and rewarding position, and I look forward to welcoming the new director.

Another great part of Chamber activities is the Leadership Henry County classes. This year's group has shown their leadership skills through the project they chose to make an impact on Henry County. This group of nine is still meeting once a month to share ideas and updates on the project.

They have visited most of the businesses in the county, sharing information about the sidewalk they wish to build from the walking path in the new Henry County Recreational and Services Park to the fishing pond. This sidewalk will be handicapped accessible and have a concrete landing spot for both handicapped and others to fish.

A donation of $350 will be recognized with a 6-inch by 12-inch engraved granite block inlaid in the path. A $50 donation will be recognized with a 4-inch by 8-inch brick in the sidewalk border. This is a great way to honor a loved one or establish your business's commitment to the community. Not only does this leave your mark in the community, but it is tax deductible as a charitable contribution.

Checks should be made to Cedar Lake Lodge Foundation and in the memo line, HC Leadership 2014. Donations should be mailed to Sharla Clubb, 841 Pt. Pleasant Road, Eminence, KY 40019. Brochures with an in-depth explanation and order form can be picked up at the Chamber office or Henry Co. Library.

Work will begin in the spring provided adequate funds have been donated. Each leadership class since 2001 has done a project to benefit the communities of Henry County. They have all definitely made a difference!

Our next networking dinner is March 31. It will be at the Extension Office and will be catered by All the Way Shoppe (Linda and Darrell Aldridge). Motivation is our topic of the evening, and who better to give us some good advice on getting up and getting "it" done than Tommy Lanham, Chamber president and motivational speaker, and George Saliba, a great example of how to be successful.

I know you will enjoy a good meal, two great speakers and good networking and fellowship. Chamber members will receive a letter on this, but all who wish to attend and find out what the Chamber is all about are welcome to attend.

Call the Chamber at 845-0806 for more information.

SUMMARY OF ORDINANCE NO. 2015-001

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY OF EMINENCE, KENTUCKY, REGULATING USAGE OF COACH D. PARK

This summary of ordinance was prepared by William Hartman Brammell, Sr., attorney for the City of Eminence, Kentucky, pursuant to statute. The full text of this ordinance may be reviewed at the office of the City Clerk, City Hall, Eminence, Kentucky.

An ordinance of the City of Eminence has been adopted which regulates the use of the city park known as Coach D. Park in the City of Eminence, Kentucky. Said ordinance sets forth prescribed violations and regulations of conduct. The penalties for violation thereof are set forth below.

Penalties: The following penalties shall be imposed for the violation of this ordinance.

A.) A first offense shall result in a sixty (60) day suspension from utilization of the park.

B.) A second offense, within a two (2) year period, shall result in a six (6) month suspension from utilization of the park.

C.) A third offense, within a (2) year period, shall result in a permanent suspension from the park.

D.) Notwithstanding the foregoing, the witnessing person or the City Council may waive penalties and provide a verbal or written warning for a first offense.

In addition to all other penalties herein above, any person found to be in violation of this ordinance shall be subject to a criminal penalty not to exceed $250.00 and not less than $10.00 before the Henry District Court.

DONE THIS 9th DAY OF FEBRUARY, 2015.

Drane Stephens, Mayor
 City of Eminence, Kentucky

“The Healthy Lifestyle Center met all of my needs. I’m in better shape today than I was when I was 20.”

Jim Smith, 53

Heart Attack Survivor
Healthy Lifestyle Center Member

Losing 31 pounds is a big deal. Changing your life is bigger. Jim Smith, 53, had a heart attack in July 2014 and entered the Healthy Lifestyle Center one month later.

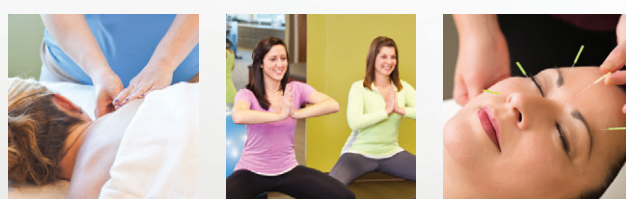

Jim’s weight fell from 238 pounds before the heart attack to 207 after completing the program, but he says the weight loss is just a sign of much bigger changes.

“The program provides an overall package,” he says. “It helps heart patients with changes in their diet, lifestyle, pain management, stress and exercise. The staff is very encouraging. They show great concern and make you feel comfortable and relaxed.”

“They become your friends. They are very compassionate when discussing how to change your habits in order to live a healthier life. They gave me hope.”

The life-changing success Jim found is available at all three KentuckyOne Health Healthy Lifestyle Center locations.

to make it 19-13. Emilie Ethington had five points, including a 3-pointer and Vargas added a basket.

The Bears rallied for 21 points in the final period while the Warriors could manage only 10 points to give the Bears the comeback win on their home court.

Emilie Ethington-Eight points vs. Brown.

Vargas and Ethington had three points each in the period while Crawford and Brooke Moore had two each.

Vargas and Ethington led the Warriors in scoring with eight points each for the game.

"From the beginning we turned the ball over," Coach Zach Adair said. "However, they were doing the same and so we were able to get out to an early lead. We were able to extend the lead to 19-11 in the third period.

"We were still up by four points with five minutes to go," he added. "Then they started pressing and got on a little run."

The Warriors still had a chance late, according to the coach.

"We were down by five with 26 seconds to go and Ethington hit a 3-pointer," Adair said. "We got the ball back with a chance to tie but couldn't convert."

Adair said turnovers were the key the Warriors' loss.

"We had 25 turnovers," he said. "It's hard to win any game with 25 turnovers. They ran a 1-3-1 defense that gave us trouble."

Adair was pleased with the play of his guards in some respects.

"Ethington played well," he said. "She was able to give us a spark on offense and Kenya Vargas played very well on defense."

The Warriors fell to 7-14 with the loss, while Brown improved to 7-17.

"DeMarcus played really well," Nethery said. "He controlled the paint and did a good job playing around the basket."

"Kemryn Jenkins also had a good game coming back from having the flu last week. We definitely got a lot better effort than we showed in the Owen County game. Hopefully, this will lead to stringing together great effort for the remaining games."

The Warriors improved to 10-12 with the win while the Bears fell to 4-20.

South Oldham 76 EHS 65

The Warriors traveled to Crestwood to take on the Dragons of South Oldham High School Feb. 10 and played them evenly until the final minutes of the game.

The first half was a seesaw battle with neither team holding more than a four-point lead. Eminence led 18-16 after the first quarter and South Oldham led 32-30 at halftime.

The Dragons got the first significant run of the game to open the third period when they outscored the Warriors 7-2 to go up 39-32. South Oldham maintained that lead for a few minutes before the Warriors got a 3-pointer from Jake McKinley to cut the lead to two points at 41-39.

Another 3-pointer, this time by Kemryn Jenkins pulled the Warriors within one point at 43-42.

But the Dragons were able to open the lead back out to nine points at 55-46 late in the third period before McKinley scored on a drive to make the Warriors' deficit seven points heading into the final period of play.

The Dragons were able to maintain the lead through most of the fourth quarter until Jenkins hit a 3-pointer to make it 64-60. He then stole the ball and hit a layup with 3:02 left to cut the lead to two points.

From there the Dragons regained their composure and went on an 11-0 run to put the game away.

"We were pressing because we were behind and they got a couple of easy baskets and hit their free throws down the stretch," coach Chris Nethery said. "Our kids gave a great effort in this game. We felt we had an opportunity to win right down to the last minutes of the game."

Nethery was pleased with the play of his veteran inside player Bailey.

"DeMarcus had a monster game with 26 points and 15 rebounds," Nethery said. "They ran a lot of zone in the middle of the game and he was able to catch it in the middle, pass fake and then get to the rim."

Nethery was also pleased with the way his team handled the Dragons' pressure defense.

"We were able to get a lot of easy baskets against their 1-3-1 trapping defense," he said.

He was also pleased with the play of eighth-grader D'Andre Wright.

"We started D'Andre and he played well," he said. "He finished around the basket and rebounded and defended well."

Besides Bailey's 26 points the Warriors got 15 points from Jenkins and 14 points from McKinley.

EHS fell to 10-13 with the loss while South Oldham improved to 11-15.

EHS 85 Trimble Co. 81

The Warriors finished a busy week of action with a trip to Bedford Thursday night to take on the Trimble County Raiders and came out on top in a high-scoring, entertaining game that saw huge momentum swings throughout the contest.

The Warriors executed well both offensively and defensively in the first period and after falling behind 4-0 early, outscored the Raiders 23-6 the rest of the quarter to lead 23-10 heading into the second period. McKinley and Jenkins did most of the damage in the period. McKinley had 10 points and Jenkins 8.

The Raiders changed their defensive strategy to start the second period by resorting to a full court press and it paid off.

They outscored the Warriors 28-13 to lead 38-36 at halftime.

"Their full court pressure did not bother us in the backcourt, but when we broke it and found ourselves in 2-on-1 and 3-on-2 situations, we made bad decisions," Nethery said. "They also got several run outs in the second period. I thought our effort was poor in the second quarter. People that we shouldn't have trouble guarding were beating us down the floor."

The Warriors were able to regain their focus during halftime and came out in the third period like they started the game. They outscored the Raiders 15-7 in the first five minutes of the period to take a 51-46 lead.

After Trimble County hit a free throw with 2:35 left, the Warriors 10-4 run to close out the third period leading 61-51. The final basket of the quarter came on a Jenkins 3-pointer.

The Warriors opened the fourth period with a 3-pointer by Cameron Jones to take a 13-point lead and it appeared that momentum had finally swung permanently to the visiting team.

But the Raiders did not build a 16-7 record coming into the game by giving up easily and they fought and scrambled to get back into the game with pressure defense and drives to the basket and with 2:17 left a runner in the lane cut the Warrior lead to 75-72.

On their next possession the Warriors took 47 seconds off the clock before committing a turnover with 1:30 left. The Raiders called timeout to try to set up a play that would get them even or within one point of the Warriors.

But Trimble County committed a turnover after the timeout and found themselves in a situation where they had to get a steal or foul to stop the clock. They fouled McKinley with 1:11 left and he calmly sank both free throws to make it a 5-point game.

The Raiders got a put back on their next possession but McKinley again went to the line with 50 seconds left and hit both free throws.

After Trimble County scored on a runner with 46 seconds left, Bailey scored inside after the Warriors broke the press to make it 81-76.

But the Raiders scored again on a drive to the basket with 29 seconds to go cut it to three points again.

The Warriors got the ball into the hands of their trusty point guard on the next possession and McKinley again sank two free throws to make it a 5-point game with 22 seconds left.

From there the Warriors saw the game out by hitting enough free throws to hold off the charging Raiders.

"I thought we did a good job of recovering from the Trimble onslaught in the second quarter," Nethery said. "Everything that could go wrong, went wrong, but our kids kept playing. I thought everybody that played contributed to the victory."

Jenkins led the Warriors with 23 points; Bailey added 22 points and McKinley contributed 20 points to the winning cause.

"Jenkins, McKinley and Bailey all had big games," Nethery said. "I liked to see several players all firing on the same night. We have capable scorers and hopefully, we can continue to make shots. Jeremy Beach also did a good job handling the ball when Jake was on the bench with four fouls."

The Warriors improved to 11-13 with the win while the Raiders dropped to 16-8.

ket often and after one period Walton led 8-6. In the second period the Bearcats got their offense going as Henry County continued to struggle and Walton went into halftime leading 30-17.

"Both teams were trying to feel each other out in the first quarter," Welch said. "Defensively, we did a good job of closing out on their shooters. In the second quarter, we lost their shooters and gave up 22 points."

Welch was not pleased with his team's performance.

"We lost our intensity," he said. "They had a big kid that was blocking shots. Then we started changing our shot and trying to finesse it in rather than taking it up strong."

The Wildcats played better in the third period and outscored the Bearcats 19-14.

"We made some adjustments and found their shooters better," Welch said. "We cut it to five but they hit a deep, running 3-pointer with a hand in their face that made it an eight-point lead going into the fourth period."

The Wildcats again cut into the lead; getting it down to four points early in the final period.

"After we cut it to four points, they got a couple of buckets and we were in a situation where we playing catch up and had to foul," Welch said.

The Bearcats went to the free throw line 14 times in the final period and made nine to pull away in the end.

"They were disciplined and well-coached," Welch said. "In the fourth quarter they executed and hit free throws.

"Our schedule doesn't get any easier from here on out and we can't have these lapses of intensity like we did in the second period," Welch said.

The Wildcats fell to 11-16 with the loss while Walton improved to 14-12.

Shelby County 59 HCHS 55

The Wildcats led 13-12 after one period in a low scoring, defensive contest at Roy L. Winchester gymnasium Friday night against Shelby County.

The Wildcats trailed the entire first period but Aneszko's layup with eleven seconds left put the Cats up.

After Jameson scored inside to open the second period, Shelby County began to assert control of the game. They outscored the Cats 12-3 over the next five and a half minutes to lead 24-18 with 1:22 left in the first half.

A Rocket 3-pointer made it 27-19 with 52 seconds to go but Heightchew hit a 3-pointer with 17 seconds to go to pull the Cats within five points at halftime.

The teams traded baskets through the first six minutes of the third period before Will's layup and Johnson's steal and layup pulled the Cats within three points at 37-34 with 1:51 to go.

After a Shelby county timeout, the Rockets answered with a 7-2 run to close out the period with a 44-36 lead.

Shelby County scored inside to open the scoring in the fourth period and gain their largest lead of the game.

The Rockets maintained a 7 to 10-point lead throughout most of the final period before the Cats made one last push with two minutes to go.

After Shelby County scored inside to make it 55-46, Jameson scored four points in a row to cut the lead to five with one minute to go.

Shelby County answered with an inside basket before Johnson was fouled on a 3-point attempt. He hit two of three free throws to make it 57-52. With 17.5 seconds left.

After a Shelby County timeout the Wildcats were forced to foul and the Rockets hit both free throws to make it 59-52.

Wills hit a 3-pointer with nine seconds left and the Cats fouled again to stop the clock with 6.5 seconds left. Shelby County missed the free throw but the Cats could not get a score as time ran out.

"We hit some big shots to keep ourselves in it and we made some key stops," Welch said. "We just couldn't get the turnover or shot to get us over the hump."

Welch was disappointed that the Cats couldn't get the win over a highly rated opponent.

"They are one of the top teams in the region and they were not going to beat themselves," he said. "We had opportunities to get ourselves in position to win, we just didn't get the crucial play we needed."

The Wildcats' coach was pleased with the performance of several of his players.

Jameson led the Cats with 21 points. He had 13 in the final period. Aneszko added 11 points and Wills had 10 points.

"I thought Jameson did a solid job in the post," he said. "Aneszko is playing much more under control and getting us in the right spots. Johnson and Heightchew did the intangibles. They got to a lot of loose balls that they shouldn't have been able to get to. Wills has really picked up a lot of slack for us on offense."

The Wildcats fell to 11-17 with the loss and the Rockets improved to 20-7.

of the team, when her defense improved her offense also improved. She had all eight of her points in the second half."

Gilley was also happy to see Force contributing on the offensive end. "All of Sarah's scoring came in the first three quarters and helped us stay in the game in the first half," he said. "She also passed the ball well and rebounded well. She was six of nine from the field for the game."

While pleased with the win Gilley thinks his team can still improve. "Overall, our kids were happy with the win," he said. "They were happy that they regained their composure after a rough second period. Our team is still looking for that full 32-minute performance."

HCHS 53 Spencer Co. 40

The Lady Cats were back on the road Friday night as they traveled to Taylorsville to take on the Spencer County Lady Bears. The Lady Cats got on top early and pulled away for the comfortable 13-point win.

The game was back and forth in the first period with Henry County coming out on top 10-8.

In the second period the Cats opened up a 12-point lead but had a little let down that allowed Spencer County to close within five points at 28-23 going into halftime.

The score fluctuated between five and 12 points for most of the second half before the Cats pushed it out to the final margin of 13 points.

"Our press bothered them," Gilley said. "We tried to make their best ball handler give up the ball and force others to handle it and that worked well for us."

Gilley was pleased with the team's response when Spencer went on a run before halftime to cut the lead to five.

"When they cut it to five points, the girls showed determination instead of getting their heads down," he said.

He was also happy to see his team learn how to play with a lead late in the game.

"We showed a good understanding of how to maintain a lead and take time off the clock while still trying to score," Gilley said.

Payton led the Cats with 24 points. The senior center hit three 3-pointers as well as dominating inside.

"Megan is averaging 21 points a game over the last 10 games," Gilley said. "She is also averaging double-digit rebounds for the season. She has really learned how to be the go-to person on the team. You have to remember that because of injuries, she has the experience of a sophomore."

Force added 11 points and Aleah Tuggle added seven points.

"Sarah played well and shot the ball well from the free throw line," Gilley said. "Sophie Hughes was instrumental in the press. She really bothered their ball handlers bringing it up the floor. Kaylee Tingle had seven rebounds in the fourth period. The girls are really getting mentally tougher at this point. We had several people do different aspects of the game well."

The Lady Cats improved to 8-16 with the win while Spencer County fell to 8-17.

EHS girls fall to Brown

Kenya Vargas-Eight points vs. Brown.

BY GREG WOODS
sports@hclocal.com

The Eminence Warriors girls' basketball team took on the Brown Bears in Louisville on Feb. 9 and fell despite leading for most of the game.

The Warriors led after one period, 6-4. Kenya Vargas and Destany Crawford each scored three points in the period.

The Warriors' defense was even stingier in the second period and they outscored the Bears 6-2 to lead 12-6 at halftime. Crawford, Madison Dockter and Lyndsay Craigmyle scored the Warriors' baskets in the second period.

The third period was played evenly with both teams scoring seven points in the period

Warriors whip Brown, Trimble

Fall to Dragons

BY GREG WOODS

The Eminence Warriors traveled to Louisville Feb. 9 to take on the Brown High School Bears and came away with a 71-57 victory.

Three-pointers by Alex Perdue and Kemryn Jenkins put the Warriors up 6-5 early in the game. From there they outscored the Bears 9-4 the rest of the first period to lead 15-9.

Perdue nailed another long 3-pointer to open the scoring in the second period and give the Warriors a nine-point lead. Two free throws by Jake McKinley ended an 8-0 run to open the quarter and give Eminence a 23-9 lead.

After two free throws for Brown the Warriors had a run of five points to enlarge their lead to 28-11.

Their lead grew to its largest of the half on an inside bucket by Kendrick Bailey that made the score 32-14.

The Bears made a slight rally to close the half trailing 36-21. "We played really well defensively in the first half," coach Chris Nethery said. "We forced a lot of turnovers and converted them into easy fast break baskets. We also shot the ball well in the first half, which forced them out of their 2-3 zone defense."

The host Bears came out in the third quarter determined to get back in the game and immediately began cutting into the Warriors' lead. They outscored the Warriors 8-2 to open the second half and cut the lead to 38-29.

The Warriors stretched the lead back out to 13 points at 46-33 on a free throw by Justin Mitchell midway through the third period.

But the Bears scored the final eight points of the period to make it 46-41 going into the fourth period.

DeMarcus Bailey scored the first basket of the second period to make it a seven-point game before the Bears got a free throw and a two-point field goal to cut the margin to four points at 48-44.

Jake McKinley responded with a 3-pointer and the Warriors maintained a five to seven-point lead for much of the rest of the game.

After Brown scored inside to make it 55-50, the Warriors began to gradually pull away to the 14-point final margin.

"In the second half, we stopped communicating on defense, which led to a big run for them," Nethery said. But then we went on a 10-0 run to put the game away in the fourth. Forcing turnovers was definitely the key to the win for us."

DeMarcus Bailey led the way for the Warriors with 17 points. Jenkins added 15 points and McKinley contributed 13 points as the Warriors got balanced scoring from eight players.

Wildcats down KCD; fall to Walton, Shelby

BY GREG WOODS
sports@hclocal.com

A strong defensive performance in the third quarter propelled the Henry County Wildcats to a 12-point victory over the Kentucky Country Day Bearcats in Louisville on Feb. 9.

The Wildcats held the Bearcats to just two points in the period to take command of what had been a close game through the first two periods.

The Wildcats led 13-11 after the opening period and increased the lead to seven points late in the second period.

But KCD closed the half with a 6-0 run to make it 29-28 going into the second half.

"We played well in the first half," Coach Enoch Welch said. "They were playing zone defense and we were able to get Devin McIntosh in and he hit a three-pointer and then pumped faked a three and drove for two points to give us a lift off the bench. It's important for us to get the young guys like Devin in the game and have them contribute. Unfortunately, they went on that late run to close the gap."

The Wildcats got off to a good start in the third period when Trey Wills hit a 3-pointer on an out of bounds play. Coleton Aneszko assisted on the play and the Cats used the play as a springboard for a strong quarter that saw them outscore KCD 12-2.

"Defensively, we talked and rotated well," Welch said. "They got shots off but they were contested and not really the shots they were looking for."

"Coleton had a rough first quarter but came back and had one of his better games of his career. He drew four charges, had 10 points, six assists and five steals. He was a complete player."

Welch said the Bearcats hit some 3-pointers in the fourth period but, "We responded each time by coming down and running our offense and being patient and scoring each time to limit the damage."

Welch thought he got a good team effort from his players.

"Trey and Gavin Jameson had good games on the boards and Mason Heightchew also rebounded well in the first half before getting into foul trouble," he said. "We had balanced scoring and good contributions from several players. It was our most complete game of the season."

Jameson led the Wildcats with 18 points and Wills added 15 points. Henry County improved to 11-15 with the win while KCD, the 7th Region All A champions, fell to 12-12.

The Henry County Lady Cats traveled to Megan Payton-Led Lady Cats with 24 points vs. Spencer County.

Louisville Feb. 10 to take on the Whitefield Academy Lady Wildcats and came away with a 53-43 victory that was keyed by stingy third quarter defense.

The Lady Cats opened well with senior center Megan Payton and junior forward Sarah Foree leading them to an 18-13 lead after the first quarter. Payton had seven points in the period and Foree had four.

The Lady Cats ran into foul trouble in the second quarter and found themselves down at halftime 26-24 going into the locker room.

"I thought our lack of defensive intensity along with being hampered with foul trouble led to a subpar second quarter," Coach Todd Gilley said. "Megan Payton, Sarah Foree and Sophie Hughes all missed most of the period with foul trouble. That left us with no one above the sophomore class on the floor during that time."

The Lady Cats came out with better focus on the defensive end for the third quarter and limited

Whitefield to four points for the entire period.

Offensively, Foree and Payton did most of the damage as they scored seven and five points respectively. The team scored 16 points to lead by ten points at 40-30 going into the final period of play.

"When our defensive intensity picked up, our offensive execution got better," Gilley said of the third period outburst.

The Lady Cats were able to maintain their lead throughout the final period as Whitefield tried to play catch up and fouled, sending Henry County to the line where they hit 7 of 11 free throws to seal the victory.

Payton led the Cats with 20 points despite sitting out most of the second period. Foree added 13 points and Mailin Burnett added eight points.

Gilley was most impressed with Burnett's second half defense.

"Mailin had her best defensive performance of the year in the sec-
